JM

JOSE MOURINHO

Good evening and welcome back.

The win over Manchester City on Sunday was a fantastic result for us and I am sure you are all as proud of our players as I am for the display they put on.

They were all phenomenal with their efforts and that is in part down to the hard work they have put in during a rare clear two weeks of training together leading up to the game. Not only was the win a satisfying one against the reigning league champions, it was an important three points in our push to close the gap on our rivals in and around the top four, with many having dropped points this past weekend.

It is also positive to record back-to-back Premier League wins following our 2-1 victory over Norwich here a week ago.

It has not been an easy season for our fans at times so it was pleasing that we have been able to bring so much excitement to those inside the stadium.

I have spoken many times in this column and the media about my love for the FA Cup. It is a competition we all want to win and I am certain the players will show that this evening with the same determination and desire they demonstrated against City.

"THE FA CUP IS A COMPETITION WE ALL WANT TO WIN AND I'M CERTAIN THE PLAYERS WILL SHOW THAT THIS EVENING WITH THE SAME DESIRE THEY DEMONSTRATED AGAINST CITY"

We welcome this evening's visitors after facing them twice in quick succession recently, which means we are fully aware of their quality. We will need to be at the top of our game to progress past this strong Southampton side.

Meanwhile, we are looking forward to our Champions League round of 16 first leg against RB Leipzig, which comes in a busy period for us, just three days after our trip to Aston Villa.

While we are still in the FA Cup we will always dream of lifting that famous trophy, so please get behind the players tonight and show them how much you also believe.

I hope you enjoy your evening with us.

BE THERE

WARTIME HERO HONOURED

The Club was honoured to play a part in celebrating the 103rd birthday of a wartime hero at our match against Norwich City recently.

Major Kenneth George Mayhew, RMWO, and his wife, Patricia, were guests of the Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands at the new stadium.

RMWO stands for Ridder Militaire Willems Orde, translated as Knight in the Military William Order. Mr Mayhew is one of the only four bearers of this highest honour of the Netherlands, comparable to the British Victoria Cross, presented for 'performing excellent acts of bravery, leadership and loyalty in battle' during World War Two.

Conscripted in 1939, Mr Mayhew served as an officer of the 1st Battalion of the Suffolk Regiment. He commanded a company which landed in Normandy as part of D-Day in 1944 and fought in the North West Europe Campaign.

During battles in the Netherlands, Mr Mayhew's company took part in the liberation of Weert, Venray and Overloon. He was injured in 1944 but returned to his company to fight on, against the orders of his doctors. He was injured again in 1945 and this time returned to England.

Now based in Norwich, Mr Mayhew is a Canaries fan and Season Ticket Holder and was invited to the recent game by the Embassy of the Netherlands as a birthday present and out of gratitude for 'what he did for our country'. There was a special moment after the game as two Dutch international goalkeepers – Michel Vorm and Norwich's Tim Krul – met the party and presented signed shirts to Mr Mayhew.

TASHAN JOINS STOKE

Last week, we reached agreement with Stoke City for the transfer of Tashan Oakley-Boothe.

The 19-year-old midfielder made one first team appearance during his time at the Club, coming off the bench in a 1-0 EFL Cup win over Barnsley in 2017. He made 20 appearances for our Development Squad and Under-19s this season, scoring twice. We wish Tashan well for the future.

NORWICH AWAIT

Tonight's FA Cup fourth round replay will be decided this evening, with extra time and penalties used if required. The winners will be at home to Norwich City in round five, with that fixture currently scheduled for the week commencing Monday 2 March.

LOAN MOVES

A number of our players including England international Danny Rose went out on loan during the last couple of days of the January transfer window last week, all of them until the end of the current season.

Danny has joined Newcastle United on loan. The left-back, 29, joined our Academy from Leeds United in July, 2007, and made his debut in a League Cup tie against his home-town team Doncaster Rovers in August, 2009. He has since gone on to make 214 appearances for us, scoring 10 times, including a memorable strike on his Premier League debut against Arsenal in April, 2010.

Cameron Carter-Vickers has joined Championship side Luton Town on loan. A product of our Academy, the 22-year-old centre-half spent the first half of the campaign on loan at Stoke City, where he made 15 appearances in all competitions. In previous seasons he has spent time on loan with Sheffield United, Ipswich Town and Swansea City, and has made four senior appearances for us to date.

Winger Anthony Georgiou has moved to League One side Bolton Wanderers on loan. The 22-year-old Academy graduate made his first team debut in a Champions League group stage fixture against APOEL in September, 2017. The Cyprus international has since had loan spells at Levante in Spain and Ipswich Town.

Joining League One side Lincoln City on loan is TJ Eyoma. The versatile defender, 20, has come through our Academy system and made his first team debut for us in an FA Cup third round tie at Tranmere Rovers in January, 2019. He has made 21 appearances in all competitions for our Development Squad and Under-19s so far this season.

Kazaiah Sterling has joined League Two side Leyton Orient on loan. The striker spent the first half of the campaign on loan at Doncaster Rovers in League One, but an injury restricted him to four appearances and one goal in all competitions. The 21-year-old also has previous loan experience at Sunderland.

Finally, Shilow Tracey has joined League Two side Macclesfield Town on loan. The 21-year-old attacker joined our Academy in January, 2016, from Ebbsfleet United and has made 16 appearances for our Development Squad so far this term, scoring once.

ROY BROWN
DOB: 05.10.1945
POSITION: GOALKEEPER

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look at former Spurs players who made just a single competitive appearance for us. Today, he explores the career of goalkeeper Roy Brown, who made his Spurs cameo against Blackpool in 1966.

Born in Hove on 5 October, 1945, Roy Brown turned out for both Brighton and Sussex Schools and featured in a trial match for England Schoolboys prior to joining us as an amateur player in September 1961. The young goalkeeper represented our reserve, youth and 'A' team during the 1961/62 season before putting pen-to-paper on a professional contract with us on 15 October, 1962.

Exactly four years on from signing his first professional deal, Brown made his one and only senior, competitive appearance in our colours. In the absence of Pat Jennings, he started in goal for our First Division clash with Blackpool at White Hart Lane.

While the Tangerines' Tony Waiters was the busier of the two goalkeepers in the opening stages of that match, it was the visitors who took the lead on 23 minutes when Ray Charnley finished off a fluent team move.

Cyril Knowles' powerful shot gave us an equaliser just two minutes later to the delight of most of the 36,459 crowd. Brown was beaten again before half-time though as Alan Skirton headed Blackpool back into the lead.

As we pushed for a second-half equaliser, the Seasiders managed to hit us with a late break and Charnley scored his second goal of the afternoon. The Tangerines' 3-1 triumph saw them rid themselves of their record of being the only winless team in the top-flight at that stage of the season. They won only five further matches in the First Division that campaign and finished bottom of the table, while we came third behind Manchester United and Nottingham Forest.

With club legends such as Bill Brown and Pat Jennings wearing the number one shirt during his time at White Hart Lane, Roy Brown was limited to just that one first team appearance for us. During his time as a Spurs player, he attended a number of our home and away matches in European competition in which substitute goalkeepers were permitted.

He also made around 250 appearances at different levels for the Club and was a prominent member of the team that won the Metropolitan League Cup in 1965 and the Football Combination title in 1965/66, 1966/67 and 1967/68.

Brown, who remained living in Sussex during his time with us, signed for Reading in the summer of 1968. He went on to feature in 63 league matches for the Royals, who competed in the old Third Division at the time.

He was on the move again in 1970, signing for Notts County, for whom he made 113 league appearances until a transfer to Mansfield Town in 1975.

Brown was part of the Notts County team that finished second in the old Third Division in 1972/73 and gained promotion to the second tier of English league football.

From the start of 1973 up to and including 20 April that year he kept nine clean sheets in 18 league matches, as County won 12, drew four and lost just two matches. In the process, they completed an impressive rise from 12th place in the table at the start of the year to second position by late April.

Brown didn't feature in the Mapgies' three final league matches of the campaign, which saw the club secure the runners-up spot in the division. The goalkeeper had already done enough by then to eventually be named as the supporters' Player of the Season.

Brown hung up his gloves in 1975, having made just one senior appearance for Mansfield Town. He later embarked on a career as a Sports Centre Manager and served as Head of Leisure for Reading Borough Council for almost 25 years.

ALSO FEATURING

Scottish centre-forward David Brown joined Spurs from Forthill Athletic in May 1909. He made his First Team debut in a 7-1 London FA Charity Cup victory over Croydon Common on 11 October, 1909 prior to his one and only competitive appearance in our 2-0 First Division defeat at Liverpool on 26 March, 1910. He was a stand-in for the injured Percy Humphries that day.

Brown was released at the end of the 1909/10 season but was promptly re-signed prior to the start of the new campaign. He regularly featured for our reserve side but failed to play for our first team again. He was released at the end of the 1910/11 campaign, after which he attended trials with Reading, Birmingham City and Merthyr Town. He eventually signed for Greenock Morton in October 1911. There is little information available with regards to his time at Cappielow Park or his career thereafter.

Ryan Sessegnon

Now six months into his Spurs career, summer arrival Ryan Sessegnon looks back on what has been a challenging start to life at the Club. It's been all about patience for Ryan Sessegnon this season.

When he joined the Club from Fulham on deadline day last August, the full-back knew he would have to bide his time before stepping out in a Spurs shirt for the first time due to a severe hamstring injury that he had picked up during international duties with England's Under-21s outfit.

It meant his life with us was always going to be a slow burner as he had to take time to recover, rehabilitate and then get up to speed with the rest of his new team-mates, who had all enjoyed the benefits of a full pre-season.

It was not until the start of November that Ryan made his debut for the Club as he came off the bench in injury time during our 1-1 draw away to Everton. He didn't make his home debut until December, as he started in our 5-0 triumph over Burnley.

For the 19-year-old, that moment was a long time coming. He had to overcome the most difficult period in his career to reach that point. Getting through that spell brought relief for the youngster but now, as he reflects honestly on an eye-opening first six months at the Club, all he wants to do is to kick-on in his Spurs career and take his game to the next level.

"NOW I'M INJURY FREE, I AM IN A PLACE WHERE I AM TRAINING AND PAIN FREE SO WHENEVER I GET THE CHANCE TO PLAY, I JUST WANT TO IMPRESS AND HELP THE TEAM"

"It's been good. I think it's been a challenge for me," Ryan admitted. "Obviously, when I first arrived, I was injured and that was a tough start for me, trying to get up to speed of training and stuff like that. I was just wanting to get in and train but, of course being injured, that made it difficult. I had to be honest with my body.

"Mentally, that has been the most difficult part of my career so far. Moving to a big club with such an injury and not being able to make my debut until months later…it almost felt like, while I had been at the club for some time, in the same moment, it felt like I hadn't because I hadn't played a lot. I would say I lost confidence a little bit, for whatever reason. At the start it was because I was coming back from injury and trying to find my feet. I don't think that's a factor anymore, I think it was just a little bit of self-belief had gone. It's definitely been hard to get a taste of things but I'm staying positive and trying to stay focussed.

"As a player, I'd say I'm quite quiet and a little bit shy but mature as well. I think I've been like that since I came into the men's game at the age of 16 though. I've always shown that sort of maturity but again, I'm still young, I'm still trying to learn and I'm trying to soak up as much information from everyone, whether that be coaches or senior professionals, to up my game and that won't ever stop.

"And now I'm injury free, I am in a place where I am training and pain free so whenever I get the chance to play, I just want to impress and help the team. I just have to stay positive and these things will come with time and with games. Consistency will then come if I keep playing and I'm sure the players and fans will start to see that soon."

Despite the injury troubles that hindered the start of his Spurs career, it wasn't difficult for Ryan to settle in at his new home. A London boy, born and raised in the south west of the city, the switch to the capital's north was a move that excited him.

"IT'S BEEN A STEP UP THIS SEASON. PLAYING FOR A BIGGER TEAM WITH BETTER PLAYERS, A BIG STADIUM AND IN FRONT OF 60,000 PLUS FANS, IT'S DEFINITELY BEEN A LEVEL UP"

And he admits that the transition between clubs, the first move of his career, was made easier by the welcome he received from his new teammates – no welcome more appreciated than that from Dele Alli.

The former MK Dons midfielder's arrival at the club back in February, 2015 shares many similarities to Ryan's move to here. Dele, just like our number 19, moved to N17 as a teenager with significant expectations on his shoulders while he also had to wait months to make his Spurs debut – due to him returning on loan to MK until the end of the season though, rather than an injury.

"As soon as I came in on the first day, Dele showed me around the whole building," the England Under-21 international explained. "He took me around everywhere, told me where everything was in the training ground so yes, he's been a big help for me settling in.

"We don't live too far from each other. We speak to each other a lot. We're quite tight, he's probably the player I'm closest too. Obviously, everyone has been very helpful to me here, but Dele's probably been the most."

Now settled and fighting fit for us, Ryan is just looking forward with a clear aim - to improve each and every day. He has had to be patient in his return to fitness and now he knows he will have to be patient in his development in an environment that he believes is a step-up for him.

Into his second season of Premier League football, he has now enjoyed his first taste of the Champions League with a substitute appearance in our 4-0 win away at Crvena zvezda in November and then a full 90 minutes away at Bayern Munich in December. He assisted within minutes of coming on in Serbia and then scored at the Allianz Arena – positive moments that have been crucial for him.

He, of course, wants even more of those moments now and believes those will come as we begin to see even more of his attacking talent which had originally propelled him onto the main stage in his years at Craven Cottage.

"It's been a little bit of a step up for me this season. Playing for a bigger team, with better players, a big stadium and in front of 60,000 plus fans, it's definitely been a level up, especially with my first taste of Champions League action coming this season as well," he discussed. "I've played two games in the competition so far, a substitute appearance and then a full game, so to come through in both of those games was good for me, for my confidence as well.

"Those moments probably felt even more special than the things like the Championship Player of the Year and the Play-off Final success with Fulham because they are in my past now. Of course, I'm still proud of those moments but this is now another level where I have to step up again.

"So even after the difficult start, you remember those moments like in the Champions League and they were important for me. I will never forget them. But again, it's about creating opportunities for myself to improve, that's the aim.

"Moving into this new year, once I get a run of games in which I've played well and the team's winning, that will definitely help my confidence. And then we'll start to see that attacking play that I've shown previously. I think it's just a trusting process.

"People like to see these changes happen quickly but, unfortunately, that's not always the case. Sometimes it takes time. That's why I have to keep positive, stay patient, always look to improve and I'm sure it will come sooner rather than later."

Previewing this evening's FA Cup fourth round replay with Southampton, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

In our 10 previous FA Cup meetings with Southampton, we've scored 15 goals and conceded 16, having won three and lost three with four draws.

League Two side Newport County earned a Wembley replay as we drew 1-1 in Wales but an own goal from Dan Butler and a strike from Erik Lamela saw us through.
2010
Held 2-2 at the Lane by Leeds United, we enjoyed a 3-1 win in the replay at Elland Road thanks to a Jermain Defoe hat-trick.
2005
Jermain Defoe scored twice and Robbie Keane converted a penalty as we came from behind to beat West Brom at the Lane. Nwankwo Kanu opening the scoring for the Baggies.
1999
A crazy spell of games against Wimbledon as we met in the league, League Cup semis and two FA Cup games. We won this replay 3-0. Andy Linton and Allan Nielsen [2] scoring.
1996
After a 1-1 draw at home to Wolves, we finished the job at Molineux thanks to a 2-0 win with goals from Ronny Rosenthal and Teddy Sheringham.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

We've had plenty of fourth round replays down the years in the FA Cup, let's take a look back at some of our more recent victories…

SON SHINES IN CUP

In our squad, no player has featured in more FA Cup games or scored more FA Cup goals than Heung-Min Son (20 games, 11 goals).

HOME RUN

We have lost one of our previous nine home matches against Southampton, a 2-1 defeat in May 2016, and have won all of the other eight fixtures.

ALL-TIME STATS

We have played 442 FA Cup ties since our first against West Herts in 1894-95, winning 227 of them and losing 106 to date.

With victory over Manchester City on Sunday (2-0), we made it back-to-back victories in the Premier League for the first time since the middle of December following our 2-1 win over Norwich City on January 22. Meanwhile, in all competitions, we are unbeaten in our last five, our longest spell without defeat since a run of six games in November.

It's been a mixed bag of results for Southampton as of late. Having moved into 2020 on a run of six games without defeat including significant away scalps at Aston Villa (3-1), Chelsea (2-0) and Leicester (2-1), they have since struggled for consistency. Last time out, they suffered a 4-0 defeat to Liverpool.

A boyhood Southampton fan who grew up in the nearby Hampshire village of Netley, Ings is enjoying a magnificent goalscoring campaign for the Saints after several seasons scarred by serious injury. Starting out at Bournemouth, he was snapped up by Burnley aged 19, scoring 26 goals for them in 2013/14 and winning the Championship Player of the Season award. Promotion to the top-flight followed and Ings scored 11 times before earning a move to Liverpool in the summer of 2015. He won his first England cap in October that year before suffering a major knee injury just days later. After a second knee injury, he joined the Saints in 2018, initially on loan before making it permanent the following year.

Ronny scores his first goal past Bruce Grobbelaar

WHERE WERE YOU WHEN RONNY SCORED?

BY BILLY SHAW

Mention an FA Cup replay against Southampton and everyone's thoughts immediately turn to one man.

Ronny Rosenthal was hardly renowned for his deadly finishing but on 1 March, 1995, as we took on the Saints in a fifth round replay at The Dell, he produced the kind of career-defining performance that many top strikers can only dream of.

With the team languishing at 2-0 down, he came off the bench at the interval – and scored an unlikely hat-trick as we roared back to win 6-2 in extra time!

Rocket Ronny's terrific treble is still remembered fondly – here's a snapshot of who was where and what they remember about that fabled night on the south coast 25 years ago…

STUART NETHERCOTT

Where he was: On the bench after being replaced by Ronny at half-time

"I'd been subbed off, but I understood the decision. I was told to do a man-to-man marking job on Matt Le Tissier to start with – he was red hot at that time – but we found ourselves 2-0 down, Gerry Francis (manager) had to do something and I was the one to come off. Looking back, it was probably a wise decision! There's picture of us in the dugout going mad when the goals were going in. There were a couple of screamers in there, Ronny was just on fire that night. You couldn't believe what was going on in front of you! I remember the celebrations at the end. It was a great cup night for the club."

ANDY SCOTT, SPURS SUPPORTER

Where he was: Away seating area at The Dell

"The seats we were given as the visiting club were in the top tier along the side of the ground to the left. I remember I was up there that night and when Rosenthal scored the hat-trick, it was at the end where we were sitting. Looking down on the goals,

...and equalises with a long-range effort as Jurgen Klinsmann looks on even from the side, you could see the angles of them going in and Bruce Grobbelaar, the Southampton goalie, just grabbing at thin air. Because he got the hat-trick, though, I think it took away from how well we played in the second half and in extra time with the other players scoring as well – Darren Anderton, Nick Barmby and Teddy Sheringham."

DARREN ANDERTON

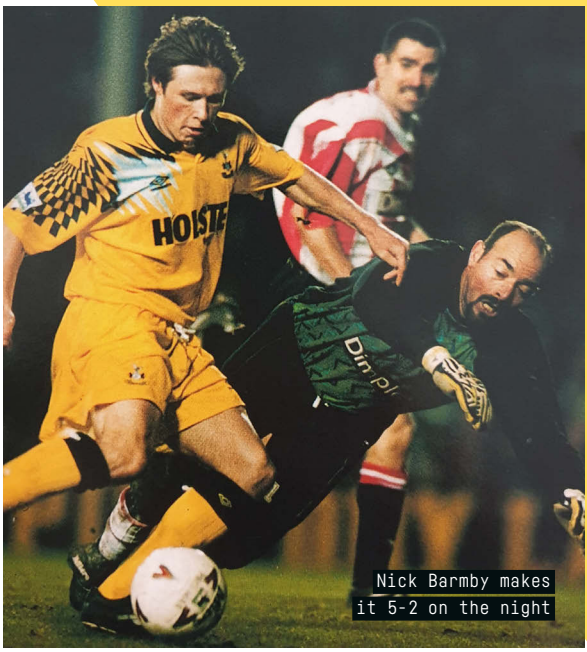
Where he was: In midfield, just behind Ronny

"The first game was 1-1 and we were confident for the replay but a couple of decisions went against us and you're thinking 'what's going on here?' No-one could have imagined what was going to happen! We pressed on to win it in normal time, it went to extra time but once Ronny scored the third goal, the floodgates opened. Ronny was such a great lad and he had such a strong mentality. Things didn't always go his way and people will always talk about his miss for Liverpool at Villa, but he just laughed it off. When he was on, he was on – and he was cooking on gas that night!"

LEWIS COOMBES, SOUTHAMPTON FAN

Where he was: Among the Saints' supporters in the Archers Road end at The Dell

"I was in good voice as Neil Shipperley and a Matt Le Tissier penalty had put Saints 2-0 up by half-time. At that point you started thinking we could be in for a decent cup run, but Ronny Rosenthal seemed to have other ideas! It's the hat-trick goal in extra time that stands out – running in from distance with defenders backing off, you could see it unfolding in slow-motion. Spurs had a field day with a punch-drunk defence. Grobbelaar was all over the place and there was a spell of 20 minutes where every attack ended in a goal. When Sheringham made it four, people started to leave, Barmby made it five and the ground emptied – by the time Anderton drilled in the sixth, I remember being surrounded by empty red seats."



Nick Barmby makes it 5-2 on the night

DARREN CASKEY

Where he was: On the bench, then on the pitch at 2-2

"I was the other substitute in this game and I remember I had an absolute disaster of a haircut! I'd been to the hairdresser because the match was going to be on Sky, but unfortunately he'd put a big step in the back of my head. It was a terrible one, horrendous, and I would have got away with it if I'd stayed on the bench with my hat on! As it happened, Gerry brought me on for David Howells with about 15 minutes of normal time to go, just after Ronny had scored his second to make it 2-2. It was a crazy game. I can't quite remember all of his goals but he hit one and it swerved from one side of the goal to the other and went in the top corner."

PETER BASSETT, SPURS SUPPORTER

Where he was: Following the game at home in Tottenham

"I vividly recollect following this game at various intervals at home on Ceefax. My evening television routine back then would be to lie on the carpet while our four-year-old daughter fell asleep on my wife's lap. Feeling utterly depressed at the half-time scoreline, I decided to do the washing-up, hoping we could at least make a game of it and avoid exiting the cup in a non-embarrassing fashion. Washing up completed, I was amazed to see that it was now 2-2 thanks to super sub Ronny. Half-an-hour or so later and the full-time score was confirmed at 2-2. By my reckoning there were five minutes left when it was time to visit good old Ceefax again. I couldn't believe my eyes – the score was now 5-2 to us! I let out a shriek of delight that instantly woke up our daughter, which then led to my wife scoring a direct hit with a cushion, straight into my face! Thankfully our daughter wasn't adversely affected as she is a season ticket holder like myself. The final score as we all know was 6-2 – quite an unbelievable evening."

GARY MABBUTT

Where he was: Playing in defence as captain

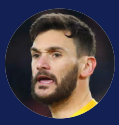
"Ronny came on and everything he touched turned to gold. It was unbelievable! Every time he got the ball, a goal was scored. My reaction was just 'wow'. When you're 2-0 down, as captain of your team, you're looking around and trying to sort things out, but Ronny's contribution turned the game. He was all over the place, defenders just couldn't stay with him and everything he hit was flying in the back of the net. I remember his celebrations – I don't think even he could believe he was doing it! He was on a different planet."

KEVIN FITZGERALD, SPURS SUPPORTER

Where he was: Back of the away section at The Dell

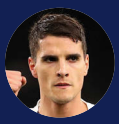
"I was quite near the back of the Spurs stand, along the side as I remember. I guess nothing quite compares with Lucas Moura's hat-trick in Amsterdam but this was up there and possibly even more unlikely given the relative scarcity of Ronny's goals for Spurs. The goals themselves? Most memorably the two long shots – goals that surprised Grobbelaar even more than they surprised me. He'd already scored one, then he cut in from the wing and fired his first rocket, a missile from outside the penalty area. Ronny's second rocket, an even longer-range missile after a run through the middle, led to what became an avalanche of goals."

AS FOR THE PLAYERS OF THE FUTURE… WHERE WERE THEY AT THE TIME?



Hugo Lloris: "I was eight years old. I wasn't even playing for OGC Nice at this age – I was still playing tennis and going to school."

Toby Alderweireld: "This will have been one day before my sixth birthday. I was at Bunt School in Ekeren in Antwerp."



Erik Lamela: "I was almost three back home in Buenos Aires – this date is just before my birthday. I was too young to even be in school."

Michel Vorm: "I was 11, just enjoying time with my mates at Oosterlicht College in Holland and watching Ajax be unbelievable! They won the Champions League that year."

OH, WHEN THE SPURS SAINTS GO MARCHING IN!

TONIGHT SEES THE 11TH FA CUP MATCH BETWEEN OURSELVES AND SOUTHAMPTON, DATING RIGHT BACK TO 1901/02, SO LET'S TAKE A LOOK OVER THOSE PREVIOUS MEETINGS PRIOR TO THIS SEASON IN THE FAMOUS OLD COMPETITION.

1901/02
FA Cup First Round

The FA Cup winners of 1900 and 1901 met at the first-round stage the following season and it needed three matches to separate the sides.

These games are also featured in our article on pages 49-51 of tonight's programme, but a quick recap showed that the first match took place at White Hart Lane and ended in a 1-1 draw, David Copeland scoring for us and Tommy Bowman for the visitors.

The replay at The Dell also finished in a draw. Ted Hughes netted both our goals while Edgar Chadwick and Joe Turner replied for Southampton and so we reconvened for a second replay at Reading's Elm Park.

Jack Kirwan gave us the lead but our grip on the trophy was relinquished as goals from Archie Turner and Albert Brown gave Saints a 2-1 win. They marched all the way to the final that year, but lost to Sheffield United.

1947/48
FA Cup Sixth Round

It was almost 50 years later before we again met Southampton in the competition, this time for a place in the semi-finals.

Len Duquemin had been a star of our run to the sixth round, scoring seven goals in three games as we overcame Bolton (2-0), West Brom (3-1) and Leicester City (5-2), including a hat-trick against the Foxes. Southampton beat Sunderland, Blackburn Rovers and Swindon Town – all at home – and they were given a home tie once again as we headed to the south coast for the game.

On a sunny afternoon at The Dell, we started confidently but the Saints grew into the game and went close on a couple of occasions in the first half. Duquemin almost broke through twice and Freddie Cox could have been awarded a penalty when upended in the area but the referee waved play on.

The only goal of the game came 10 minutes from time as we eventually pierced the home side's defence. Ernie Jones crossed the ball for Duquemin, who spotted Les Bennett in space and nodded it into his path and the inside forward advanced towards goal and hit a powerful left-foot shot that flew past Ian Black in the Saints goal.

The report in our subsequent match programme wrote: 'There was a moment of silence. Then from the throats of 5,000 Tottenham supporters there burst a mighty roar. Rattles were sprung, bells were rung, and 20 to 30 of Tottenham's bedecked followers rushed on to the field of play to give Bennett an approving pat on the back'!

Any hopes we had of lifting the cup for the first time since 1921 ended at the semi-final stage as we lost 3-1 to Blackpool at Villa Park.

1982/83
FA Cup Third Round

Some 81 years after we faced Southampton as FA Cup holders at the first hurdle, we did so again in January 1983, eight months after beating QPR in a Wembley final replay.

We actually went into this clash with the Saints having won the competition in each of the previous two seasons and, having been unbeaten in the competition for the previous 16 matches, we were looking to become the first club in the modern era to win the FA Cup three times in succession.

Once again the game was at the Lane and when we met for league points in Division One earlier that season, we cruised to a 6-0 win. Southampton, managed by Lawrie McMenemy and including the likes of Peter Shilton in goal, Mick Mills, Mark Wright and Danny Wallace in their side, had only won twice away from home in the league and were 15th in the table, but only four points behind us.

As anticipated, we started brightly and enjoyed the lion's share of possession but found Shilton in excellent form during the first half, one save in particular from a Chris Hughton (below) drive drawing applause from everyone inside the ground. At the other end, his opposite number Ray Clemence produced a fine stop to deny David Armstrong before we took the lead in the 51st minute.

Graham Roberts released Hughton down the left flank, he cut inside to the edge of the area and rolled a ball across to the oncoming Micky Hazard, whose right-foot low drive beat Shilton from 25 yards. Hazard's strike was made all the more impressive by the fact that he had earlier sustained a nasty head injury following a collision with Keith Cassells, but was able to continue.

Steve Archibald was inches away from doubling our lead moments later, while Clemence made another great save to prevent Steve Williams from equalising as we held firm to reach round four.

We went on to beat West Brom 2-1 at the Lane in the next round, but our bid for glory ended in the fifth round with a 2-0 defeat at Everton.

took full advantage, Matt Le Tissier racing clear to score their first on 28 minutes before Barry Horne drove in a second from a tight angle five minutes before the break.

We produced a spirited fightback in the second half with Gary Lineker and Paul Stewart both going close – the latter's header brilliantly saved by Saints goalkeeper Tim Flowers – before a long-range strike from David Howells halved the deficit.

As we went all out for the equaliser, it left us open to the counter against a speedy Southampton front line and Rod Wallace and Le Tissier both spurned chances before the latter's point-blank header was superbly saved by Bobby Mimms but Wallace pounced to convert the rebound.

The Saints advanced to beat Oxford United in the fourth round, but lost 3-0 to Liverpool at Anfield in round five.

1989/90
FA Cup Third Round

In between reaching the FA Cup Final in 1987 – where we lost to Coventry City – and winning the trophy against Nottingham Forest in 1991, we had three barren years in the competition!

A disappointing 2-1 reverse at Port Vale in the fourth round in 1987/88 was followed by a third round exit at Bradford City the next season. So, when we were drawn at home to Southampton in 1989/90, we were hoping for better fortune.

The two teams were side-by-side in the Barclays League Division One table with the Saints fifth and us one place behind, so a tight game was expected. But injuries to Paul Gascoigne and Pat Van den Hauwe forced manager Terry Venables into a reshuffle and the visitors

Paul Stewart looks for a way past Jimmy Case and Barry Horne at the Lane in 1990

1994/95
FA Cup Fifth Round

Two matches that feature in detail elsewhere in tonight's match programme, particularly the replay!

We'd beaten Altrincham and Sunderland to set up this fifth round clash at the Lane against the Saints, who had overcome Southend United and Luton Town in previous rounds.

It ended all square in the first game at the Lane. Jurgen Klinsmann netted his 20th goal of the season in the 20th minute when he latched on to a Teddy Sheringham flick-on and clipped the ball past Bruce Grobbelaar. Shortly after, Justin Edinburgh was penalised for bringing down Jeff Kenna in the area and Le Tissier stepped up to beat Ian Walker as the game finished 1-1.

The replay at The Dell has gone down into Spurs folklore thanks to the heroics of Ronny Rosenthal. Trailing 2-0 to goals Neil Shipperley and Le Tissier, the Israeli forward scored twice to take the game to extra time and completed his hat-trick to put us 3-2 ahead. We finished the job thanks to goals from Sheringham, Nick Barmby and Darren Anderton.

FA Cup Third Round

After the highs of Rocket Ronny's hat-trick to the lows of a disappointing exit on the south coast eight years later!

Glenn Hoddle's side had lost at St Mary's just three days earlier in the Premier League, James Beattie hitting an 82nd-minute winner for the Saints, so we an immediate chance for revenge in the FA Cup.

It didn't go to plan though. The home side – managed by Gordon Strachan – took the lead in the 13th minute after Kasey Keller could only parry Beattie's free-kick and Michael Svensson was first to the rebound to prod home from close range.

Despite their domination, the Saints only had the one goal to show at half-time, but two goals in six minutes early after the interval effectively ended the contest, Jo Tessem making it 2-0 on 50 minutes before Anders Svensson added a third. Robbie Keane missed a couple of good chances to get us back into the game but the home side completed the scoring in the 80th-minute through Beattie. Southampton went on to beat Millwall, Norwich City, Wolves and Watford to reach the final, but lost 1-0 to Arsenal at the Millennium Stadium.

SAINTS AND WINNERS!

By Paul Miles

Seven years, three crazy games against Southampton, 17 goals scored, one player.

Four goals in under five minutes to beat the Saints 4-2 in the Premier League in February, 1993; 'Rocket' Ronny Rosenthal's wonder hat-trick in our 6-2 win in the FA Cup in March, 1995; Trailing twice before running out 7-2 winners in the Premier League in March, 2000.

Darren Anderton was the only player to start all three matches, and he scored in all three. This irony isn't lost on him either – Darren was born in Southampton, but turned out for fierce rivals Portsmouth, starring in his late teens for Pompey before joining us in 1992.

"I always used to get a bit of stick in these games because of the Portsmouth connection," he told us this week. "I've got to say these games are really happy memories for me. I'm a Southampton boy, really, I was born there, but of course I'm 100 per cent Tottenham."

Still our record appearance-maker in the Premier League on 299 appearances between 1992-2004, here are Darren's memories of three incredible matches against tonight's opponents…

SPURS 4-2 SOUTHAMPTON

Premier League, White Hart Lane, 7 February, 1993

Sheringham 2, Anderton, Barmby

Sitting 15th after 25 games in the Premier League, we were just about to hit our straps. A win at Crystal Palace on 30 January kicked-off a run of five straight wins, inspired by a mad five minutes against Southampton at the Lane.

We were trailing 1-0 to Iain Dowie's goal when Teddy Sheringham headed home Anderton's free-kick on 54 minutes. Anderton assisted again for Nick Barmby on 56 minutes, then scored himself a minute later before Teddy slotted home for 4-1 on 59. Sky commentator Martin Tyler summed it up perfectly: "Everything Tottenham touch turns into goals."

We ended up eighth that season, level on points with Liverpool and just three off QPR in fifth.

Darren: "This is a game that always sticks out for me – my first Premier League goal, against my home-town team. We dominated and things had just started to click around that time. They went 1-0 up and all of a sudden, we caught fire, four quality goals. It was just madness. I wasn't involved in anything like that again. For me, personally, to score that first goal for Spurs was extra special and to race into a 4-1 lead in such a short space of time after that was just magic, we couldn't believe it!

Darren Anderton gets stuck in against Southampton in 1995

"Everything that could go for us did in those five minutes, a couple of bounces here and there, one was a set-piece, but we were different class. That was the start of a really good run for us."

SOUTHAMPTON 2-6 SPURS (AET)

FA Cup fifth round replay, The Dell, 1 March, 1995

Rosenthal 3, Anderton, Barmby, Sheringham

Ronny Rosenthal will always be remembered for an incredible hat-trick that took us another step closer to Wembley in Jurgen Klinsmann's first season at Spurs. As Darren Anderton says, it felt like destiny we would reach the final – we toppled Liverpool at Anfield in the next round but then fell to Everton in the semi-final.

The first game ended 1-1 at the Lane and we were in trouble in the replay. Goals from Neil Shipperley and Matt Le Tissier put Southampton in the driving seat, 2-0 up at half-time.

Gerry Francis made a change, Rosenthal on for Stuart Nethercott, and how it worked! The Israeli star finished off a fine move for 2-1 on 57 minutes and lashed home from 30 yards to level it up two minutes later. The game went into extra time and Ronny completed his hat-trick with another screamer from 30 yards into the top corner. We were then in position to pick the Saints off as Sheringham, Barmby and Darren all scored in the second half of extra time.

Darren said: "It was almost like we were destined to get to Wembley. The first game was 1-1 and we were confident going down to the The Dell for the replay, however, a couple of decisions went against us, they scored, then a penalty and you are thinking 'what is going on here?'

Hat-trick hero Ronny Rosenthal

"No-one could have imagined what was going to happen after that. We always had the ability to score goals and get back into games and at 2-0 down, we always had that belief that if we got the next goal, they would start panicking and we'd be right back in it, and that's what happened.

"The first goal was different class, real quality. We pressed to win it in normal time, but it went to extra time and once we scored the third goal, the floodgates opened. It showed the quality we had on the counter-attack.

"Ronny was such a great fella, always smiling, always happy. He could create mayhem with his pace and one minute he'd smash one into the top corner, the next he'd miss a sitter. He had such a strong mentality. Things didn't always go his way and people will always talk about his miss for Liverpool at Villa, but he just laughed it off. When he was on form, he was impressive. He was cooking on gas that night!"

SPURS 7-2 SOUTHAMPTON

Premier League, 11 March, 2000

Iversen 3, Armstrong 2, Anderton, OG

Yes, 7-2!

We'd scored six goals in our previous nine league games leading up to this day, then scored seven in a little over an hour! It wasn't plain sailing either. Southampton actually led twice through Jo Tessem and Tahar El Khalej before Darren's goal levelled it up at 2-2 on 39 minutes. Two quick goals from Chris Armstrong and Steffen Iversen saw us go 4-2 up by half-time and Iversen went on to complete his hat-trick as we ran riot.

Darren said: "In the first half, they went 1-0 up, 2-1 up and my goal was a scramble for 2-2. Then we scored two in quick succession, we were 4-2 up at half-time and the second half was very enjoyable. Steffen Iversen scored a hat-trick. I remember it well.

"As I said, it was always a game I looked forward to. These are happy memories against Southampton. I always used to get a bit of stick because of the Portsmouth connection. It was always one I looked forward to, especially with my mates, always nice to get one over them!

"I never did play in the Southampton-Portsmouth derby, they were in the Premier League, we were in the Championship at the time, so I didn't have to endure that – although I always got plenty of stick when we played them!"

Our 1901/02 team with the FA Cup

AT THE [redacted] TURN OF THE CENTURY

ANDY GREEVES LOOKS BACK TO A PERIOD OVER 100 YEARS AGO WHEN THEN NON-LEAGUE SIDES SPURS AND SOUTHAMPTON WERE MAKING A REAL MARK IN THE FA CUP

It's a very well-known fact around these parts that Spurs were the first – and are still the only – non-league team to win the FA Cup when we triumphed in 1901, but supporters might not be aware that Southampton almost pipped us to that honour the previous year!

Southampton are one of our oldest opponents, with our first meeting with Saints dating back to our inaugural season in the Southern League in 1896/97.

Then known as Southampton St Mary's, the Hampshire side won the division and were unbeaten in the league that campaign while we finished fourth in the table. We secured a credible 1-1 draw at Saints' former County Ground home on 29 March, 1897 and followed up that result with a 2-2 draw at our old Northumberland Park ground on 8 April.

Southampton dropped 'St Mary's' from their name prior to the start of the 1897/98 season – a campaign which saw them progress to the FA Cup semi-finals. Saints eventually bowed out of the competition to Nottingham Forest, losing 2-0 in a replay at the old Crystal Palace.

Two seasons later, Ernest Arnfield's side went one better, reaching the FA Cup Final after victories over Everton, Newcastle United, West Bromwich Albion and Millwall Athletic.

Southampton faced First Division side Bury in the final at Crystal Palace on 21 April, 1900, in the knowledge that had they won the game, they would have become the first non-league side to win the FA Cup.

However, goals from Willie Wood and John Plant and a brace from Jasper McLuckie gave the Shakers a 4-0 win on the day in front of a crowd of 68,945. We exited the tournament at the first-round stage that season, after a 1-0 defeat to Preston North End at Deepdale.

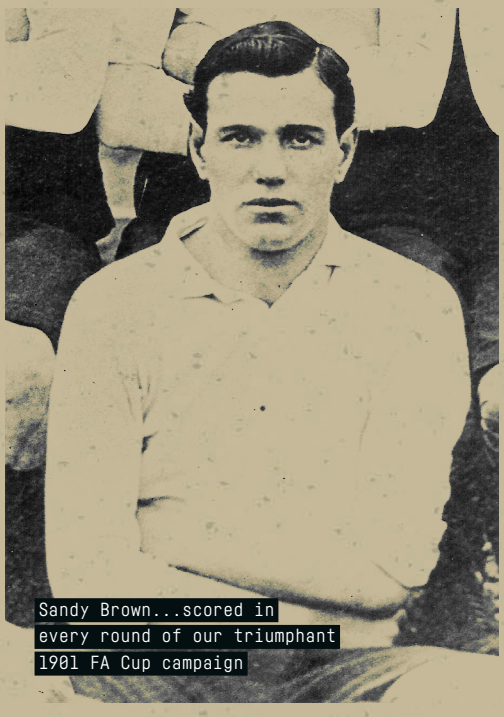
Saints' FA Cup campaign of 1900/01 began and ended in the first round as they were beaten 3-1 at home by Everton. In north London meanwhile, Sandy Brown was making quite an impression at our new White Hart Lane ground (which staged its first match on 4 September, 1899) having arrived from Portsmouth in the summer of 1900. The forward bagged nine goals in his first 14 Southern League appearances for us, prior to our FA Cup first round tie with previous season conquerors and First Division side Preston on 8 February, 1901.

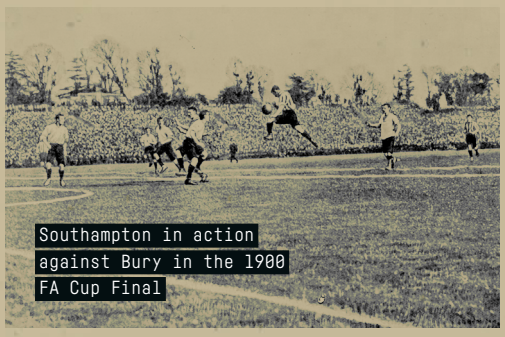
Brown scored in a 1-1 draw that afternoon prior to getting a hat-trick as we won 4-2 in the replay at Deepdale five days later. John Cameron was also on target. Our giant-killing campaign continued as we beat another top-flight side and FA Cup holders Bury 2-1 at the Lane on 23 February, as Brown scored both our goals.

We travelled to fellow Southern League outfit Reading in the third round of that season's competition. Jack Kirwin netted in our 1-1 draw at Elm Park on 23 March, prior to Brown continuing his amazing scoring run with a brace in our 3-0 triumph in the replay at White Hart Lane some five days later. David Copeland was also on target that day.

The semi-final draw pitted us with our third Division One opponent of the season, as we travelled to Villa Park to take on West Bromwich Albion on 8 April. Brown scored all four goals, and took his tally to 12 strikes in six FA Cup matches for the season, as we sauntered to a 4-0 victory in front of a crowd of 46,000 and book a place in our first-ever FA Cup Final.



Sandy Brown...scored in every round of our triumphant 1901 FA Cup campaign



Southampton in action against Bury in the 1900 FA Cup Final

Sheffield United of the First Division were our opponents in the showpiece occasion on 20 April, 1901, the match taking place at Crystal Palace. Fred Priest gave the Blades a 10th-minute lead but Brown brought us level 13 minutes later with a strike that saw him become the first player in FA Cup history to score in every round of the competition.

He put us in front six minutes after the break but Walter Bennett levelled for United less than 60 seconds later. The performance of the South Yorkshire team's goalkeeper William 'Fatty' Foulke throughout the game helped secure his side a replay at Bolton Wanderers' old Burnden Park ground a week later.

In contrast to the 114,815 crowd that had watched the original game, just 20,470 attended the replay on April 27. As he had done in the original match, Priest put Sheffield United ahead prior to our player-manager Cameron's equaliser early in the second half. Tom Smith put us 2-1 up on 76 minutes and, perhaps suitably, it was Brown who sealed our 3-1 win with three minutes of the match remaining as we wrote our name into the history books – and it remains there to this very day.

Our defence of the trophy began with a first-round meeting with this evening's opponents, Southampton, at White Hart Lane on 25 January, 1902. Tommy Bowman (although some sources credit the goal to Edgar Chadwick) gave Saints the lead in game prior to Copeland's 36th-minute leveller.

In the replay at The Dell four days later, Ted Hughes got both our goals in a 2-2 draw, while Chadwick and Joe Turner were on target for Southampton. The second replay was staged at Reading's old Elm Park ground on 3 February, 1902, which saw the Saints win 2-1 thanks to strikes from Archie Turner and Albert Brown, who cancelled out Jack Kirwin's opener. Snow fell during the game and a local newspaper report described the playing surface as being "like a skating rink".

After their trio of matches against us, Southampton made lightwork of Liverpool in round two as a brace from Archie Turner and further strikes from Joe Turner and Bert Lee saw them run out 4-1 winners at the Dell. Harry Wood, Joe Turner and Chadwick scored in a 3-2 victory at Bury in the third round, as Saints gained revenge for their 1900 FA Cup Final defeat.

White Hart Lane staged Southampton's FA Cup semi-final with Nottingham Forest on 15 March, 1902. John

Albert Brown...on target for Saints in the 1902 FA Cup Final replay

Calvey gave Forest a 57th-minute lead, but Chadwick equalised 13 minutes later. Two late strikes from Brown – which included a 90th minute penalty – took Saints through to their second FA Cup Final in three years.

As we had done a year earlier, they met Sheffield United in the final on 19 April, 1902 which saw Alf Common give the Blades the lead 10 minutes into the second-half while Harry Wood's equaliser two minutes from time forced a replay.

Brown's 70th-minute strike for Southampton cancelled out George Hedley's first-half opener in the replay at Crystal Palace on 26 April. A Billy Barnes goal 11 minutes from time condemned Saints to a 2-1 defeat as Sheffield United won the FA Cup for the second time in their history.

Paul Stewart

Having made a real impression in the FA Cup as members of the Southern League, we were elected to the Football League in 1908 while Southampton became members of the newly formed Third Division in 1920/21.

We have won the FA Cup seven times since joining the Football League – the first of those triumphs coming as we beat Wolves 1-0 in the final of 23 April, 1921 at Chelsea's Stamford Bridge ground. Our 2-0 triumph over Leicester City, in our first-ever match at the original Wembley Stadium, on 6 May, 1961, saw us become the first English club of the 20th century to win both the Football League title and FA Cup in the same season.

Further successes followed in 1962, 1967, 1981 and 1982 while our most recent triumph in the competition came back on 18 May, 1991 as a strike from Paul Stewart and an own goal from Des Walker gave us a 2-1 extra-time victory over Nottingham Forest. We were also cup runners-up in 1987.

Southampton, then of the old Second Division, pulled off a major upset in the FA Cup Final of 1 May, 1976, beating top-flight Manchester United 1-0 thanks to an 83rd-minute goal from Bobby Stokes. Just over 27 years later, Saints returned to the FA Cup Final but were beaten 1-0 on 17 May, 2003 by Arsenal at Cardiff's Millennium Stadium.

PLAYERS PAST AND PRESENT RECALL THEIR SPORTING MEMORIES

Spurs players past and present came together last week to join a Sporting Memories workshop delivered by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation for local elderly people living with dementia.

Midfielder Harry Winks and former captain Gary Mabbutt attended the Spurs-themed session at Bridgewood House, a care home located around the corner from the Club's Training Centre in Enfield.

Sporting Memories is a programme run in partnership with The Sporting Memories Foundation – a national charity that helps tackle dementia, depression and loneliness. It uses sport-themed activities and games to help those suffering from dementia or social isolation to recall memories and connect with their past.

During the workshop, Gary and Harry spent time looking through pieces of Spurs memorabilia with the residents, representative of the Club's rich history. They also exchanged personal memories of their best moments in Spurs' and wider sporting history.

Memorabilia included the 1991 FA Cup, which we won under Mabbutt's captaincy, a programme from Winksy's First Team debut in 2014, plus a range of shirts, footballs and match tickets from the 1930s through to the present day.

As part of the session, staff from Tottenham Hotspur Foundation also facilitated a series of football-based games, designed to help participants try to recall past memories of watching or playing football.

Harry, who joined the Club's Academy aged six and grew up a Spurs fan, said: "It has been a pleasure spending time with the residents at what can be a difficult time of year, especially for those suffering from loneliness.

"The Spurs fans in the room shared some interesting memories from watching the Club growing up and many of them still watch us today. It was great for me to share some of my own experiences too and tell them about playing in the new stadium."

Gary, whose parents were both diagnosed with dementia, said: "With my mum and dad, I experienced first-hand the importance of keeping the brain active and staying connected to the people around you.

"Sport is a powerful tool for bringing people together and stirring positive feelings that may otherwise remain hidden away. What starts with a discussion about an old match programme can end in someone remembering the first time they visited a football ground. This is what makes the project so special."

Gareth Jones, Equalities & Inclusion Manager at the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "Alongside our work with young people, we are committed to providing opportunities for the elderly to take part in activities that help their wellbeing.

"Our work with Sporting Memories is a fantastic example of that. I'm always amazed by what comes out of these football-themed games and discussions."

In addition to Sporting Memories workshops, Tottenham Hotspur Foundation supports older people in the Club's local community by delivering seated exercise sessions in care homes and walking football for people aged 50 and over.

Bridgewood House, where the event took place, is also home to a "dementia gym", which enables residents to take part in physical activity while interacting with personalised images and content on a screen. This aims to help unlock memories and encourage people suffering from the condition to reminisce about the past.

What does the name Southampton stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

JOHNNY MORRISON

Johnny Morrison scored five times in an amazing Spurs home run that saw us defeat Southampton in a quintet of games at the Lane over successive seasons in the 1930s. And the aggregate score was 27-2 in our favour.

All the encounters were in Division Two and the sequence started in September 1931 when we won 5-2. It was 5-0 the following season when Taffy O'Callaghan scored a hat-trick and we gained promotion to the top-flight. By season 1935/36 we were back in the Second Division and this time beat Saints 8-0. We subsequently triumphed 4-0 and 5-0 – when Morrison hit his own trio – in the next two campaigns.

To be fair, Saints were also unbeaten against us on their own ground in that time!

TED HUGHES

Our defence of the FA Cup, so famously and uniquely won as a non-league side in 1901, did not last long! Southampton knocked us out at the first round stage after two replays at the start of the following year.

Both sides were in the Southern League at the time and the first game at the Lane ended 1-1 before a 2-2 draw in the replay when Ted Hughes scored both our goals. Saints then beat us 2-1 at Reading's Elm Park to progress.

Hughes was a highly influential player for the Club during those years at the turn of the previous century and was part of the team that won the FA Cup against Sheffield United in 1901.

Having joined us in 1899 from Everton, he played over 300 games in our colours including 30 FA Cup ties, before leaving in the summer of 1908 to join Clyde.

GRAHAM ROBERTS

Having been rejected by home-town club Southampton as a schoolboy, Graham Roberts was certainly 'one that got away' from the Saints as he went on to captain Spurs and play for England.

And Robbo must have had a wry smile when he scored a hat-trick against Saints in our 3-2 win at the Lane in March 1982. Graham Baker and David Armstrong were the Southampton scorers in that one.

Roberts also scored on the south coast earlier that season when we won 2-1 with Steve Moran also on target. Pat Corbett left the substitute's bench with five minutes remaining to make his Spurs debut – and hit the winner!

4 STEFFEN IVERSEN

Steffen Iversen scored a hat-trick when we beat Southampton 7-2 at White Hart Lane in season 1999/2000. This followed a single goal triumph for us at The Dell when Oyvind Leonhardsen nicked the vital goal late on.

That home win was the first time we had scored seven in more than 16 years – since the 1983/84 season when we beat Drogheda United 8-0 on the way to our UEFA Cup triumph. Glenn Hoddle's Saints side twice took the lead and by the 33rd minute were 2-1 up thanks to goals from Jo Tessem and Tahar el Kalej.

Future Spur Dean Richards had conceded an own goal.

Darren Anderton equalised before Chris Armstrong (2) and Iversen's tally completed our comeback.

5 DICKIE DOWSETT

Striker Dickie Dowsett joined us from Sudbury Town in 1952 but had to wait two years before making his league debut. When he made the step up at Aston Villa on the opening day of the 1954/55 season, he scored in our 4-2 First Division win – but never played another senior game for us again.

He left us for Southend in May 1955 and signed for Southampton the following year. Subsequently, had five good years at Bournemouth.

6 RANDOLPH GALLOWAY

We first played Saints in a league game at The Dell in September 1928 when Randolph Galloway scored for us on his Spurs debut in the 1-1 draw. We would beat them 3-2 in the January return at the Lane.

Manager Billy Minter's side had been relegated to the Second Division at the end of the previous season but Southampton had the better campaign with a fourth place finish just five points behind Grimsby who went up with Middlesbrough. We were 10th.

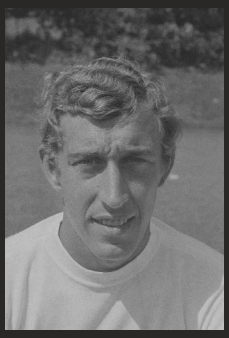
7 CHRIS FAIRCLOUGH

On the subject of sequences, we would prefer to forget the five in a row that we lost at The Dell between 1984 and 1987!

We had four different managers in that period – Keith Burkinshaw, Peter Shreeves, David Pleat and Terry Venables. And Saints were dominant on their own patch throughout that Division One run – as we were at the Lane where we played out four wins and a draw against them in that time.

Starting with a 5-0 reverse in May 1984 as Southampton raced to a second-place finish, we went on to lose by the only goal in the following two terms and then by a 2-0 and a 2-1 scoreline. That only Spurs goal came from central defender Chris Fairclough!

We twice finished third in that time but still could not win at Fortress Dell!



8 MARTIN CHIVERS

England centre-forward Martin Chivers scored three times against his former employers and home town club Southampton in their 1973/74 relegation season.

Chivers netted in our 1-1 draw at The Dell in the November and then twice as we won the April return 3-1.

It was the first season of three relegation places from the top division and unlucky Saints finished third from the bottom, just a point behind Chelsea, West Ham United and Birmingham City who all survived.

Nine-year-old Carl Hancock visited the stadium on his birthday and had his picture taken with Harry Kane!

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

Barry Ephgrave, who sadly passed away at the age of 72 in May last year after a brave battle with cancer. He started going to Spurs with his dad in the late 1950s, attending games for nearly 60 years sitting in the old East Stand Block E Row F. Unfortunately, he never got to visit the new ground but will no doubt still be shouting 'Come On You Spurs'.

In memory of Philip Webb, a lifelong fan who passed away on 8 February last year and will be watching on in spirit. It is a real sadness that he never got to see the new stadium and is deeply missed by his mum, Chris, Andy, Claire and Tim.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

Ian Rush has a shot cleared off the line by Nick Holmes

ONE STEP FROM WEMBLEY

SOUTHAMPTON HAVE FEATURED IN MANY IMPORTANT GAMES AT WHITE HART LANE OVER THE YEARS. AND NONE MORE SO THAN THEIR FA CUP SEMI-FINAL MEETING WITH LIVERPOOL IN 1986. JOHN FENNELLY LOOKS BACK.

REPORT

Southampton had conceded just one goal throughout their FA Cup campaign thus far. And their mean defence maintained that outlook at the Lane as a combative 90 minutes ended in stalemate and the game went into extra time.

The key moment for Saints was losing influential England international central defender Mark Wright to a broken leg in the first half. Wright would go on to skipper the Reds to FA Cup glory in 1992.

Saints rallied well to keep Ian Rush and player-manager Kenny Dalglish at bay, but Rush broke through nine minutes into extra time when he headed Jan Molby's cross past Peter Shilton. Within another five minutes the Wales striker was back to complete his double, make the final scoreline 2-0 and setting up an all-Merseyside final.

Future Spurs coach Kevin Bond was in the Southampton ranks that day.

The final saw Liverpool win 3-1 with Rush again scoring twice. Gary Lineker, Bobby Mimms and Pat Van den Hauwe, who would subsequently all play for us, were in the Everton side at Wembley with Lineker scoring their goal.

TEAMS

Southampton: Shilton, Wright (Townsend), Bond, Dennis, Armstrong, Case, Cockerill, Holmes, Lawrence, Moran, Wallace. Manager: Chris Nicholl.

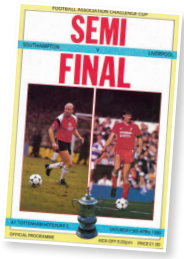
Liverpool: Grobbelaar, Hansen, Nicol, Gillespie, Beglin, McMahon (Wark), Molby, Whelan, Johnston, Dalglish, Rush. Manager: Kenny Dalglish.

Attendance: 44,605

Referee: Alan Saunders.

PROGRAMME

Our programme for the game was a 36-page full and two-colour production that featured David Armstrong and Alan Hansen on the cover, costing £1.



It contained features on both managers, plus Southampton's former Liverpool midfielder Jimmy Case and Ian Rush. Nick Holmes looked back on Saints lifting the FA Cup in 1976 and Spurs goalkeeper Ray Clemence reflected on his 14 years at Anfield.

Both clubs had their FA Cup histories detailed along with all the previous semi-finals at White Hart Lane. There were the usual pen pictures and team photographs while Steve Perryman shared his memories of twice lifting the FA Cup and Ossie Ardiles previewed that summer's World Cup in Mexico.

Round 3: Middlesbrough 1-3 Southampton (Wallace 3); Liverpool 5-0 Norwich City (Walsh, MacDonald, McMahon, Wark Whelan).

Round 4: Southampton 3-0 Wigan (Armstrong (2), Cockerill); Chelsea 1-2 Liverpool (Rush, Lawrenson).

Round 5: Southampton 0-0 Millwall. Replay: Millwall 0-1 Southampton (Wallace); York City 1-1 Liverpool (Molby, pen). Replay: Liverpool 3-1 York aet. (Wark, Molby, Dalglish).

Round 6: Brighton 0-2 Southampton (Moran, Cockerill). Liverpool 0-0 Watford. Replay: Watford 1-2 Liverpool aet. (Molby, pen, Rush).

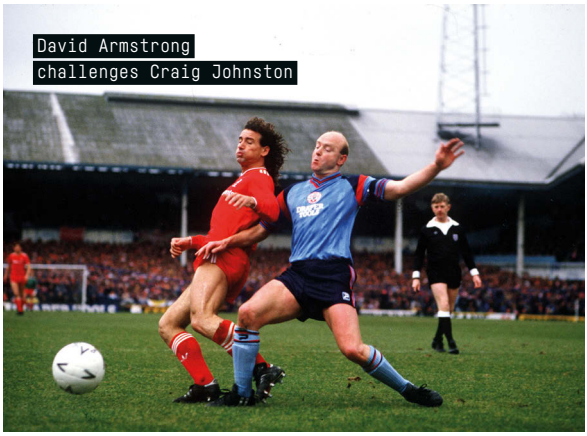
THE SEASON

Liverpool did the 'Double' in Kenny Dalglish's first season as player-manager by also pipping neighbours Everton to the title by two points. But there would be no European competition for domestic clubs due to the previous year's Heysel disaster.

Spurs finished 10th with Southampton 14th. West Brom, Birmingham and Ipswich were relegated with Norwich, Charlton and Wimbledon promoted. Gary Lineker was the Division One top goalscorer with 30 and was also named both Footballer and Player of the Year.

Oxford United won the League Cup. Our record appearance maker and captain Steve Perryman, who joined us as an apprentice in 1967, had moved to the Manor Ground in April but did not play in the final against QPR.



David Armstrong challenges Craig Johnston

WHAT'S ON

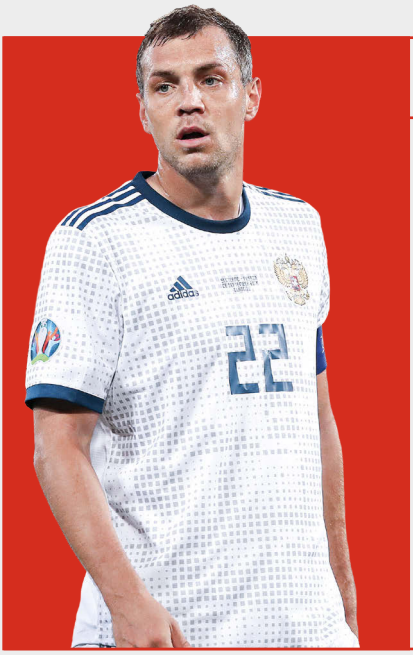
Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Tonight he takes a look at Stanislav Cherchesov's Russia.

FORM GUIDE

Russia were one of the first nations to confirm their place at UEFA Euro 2020. A 5-0 win for Stanislav Cherchesov's side in Cyprus on 13 October last year sealed a top two spot in Group I, just three days after eventual group winners Belgium became the first country to qualify for the tournament with a 9-0 home triumph over San Marino. Russia were beaten 4-1 at home by Belgium on 16 November before winning 5-0 in San Marino three days later in their final qualifying matches.



KEY PLAYER

Zenit Saint Petersburg forward Artem Dzyuba enjoyed a rich vein of form during the Euro 2020 qualification campaign. His nine strikes included four goals against San Marino in a 9-0 win in Saransk on 8 June, 2019, while he netted in their 2-1 away triumph in Scotland last September and got a brace in a 4-0 win over the same opponents in Moscow on 10 October. He was also on target in a 4-0 away win in Kazakhstan and in the aforementioned 5-0 triumph in Cyprus.

Dzyuba made his senior debut for Russia against Greece on 11 November, 2011 and scored his first international goal in his fourth appearance for the national team in a 4-0 victory over Liechtenstein in Khimki. To date, he has scored 24 times in 42 matches for Russia.

SPURS CONNECTION

Russian international Roman Pavlyuchenko signed for us from Spartak Moscow in September 2008 and made his debut in our 2-1 Premier League home defeat to Aston Villa during that month. He got the first of his 41 goals in our colours in our 2-1 League Cup third round victory at Newcastle United on 23 September that year.

'Pav' made a total of 113 appearances for us prior to a transfer to Lokomotiv Moscow in January 2012 while he has since played for Kuban Krasnodar, Ural Yekaterinburg, Ararat Moscow and current club Znamya Noginsk. He turned out for Dynamo Stavropol and Rotor Volgograd at the start of his professional career while he scored 21 goals in 51 appearances for Russia between 2003 and 2013.

Our first competitive meeting with a Russian club came at White Hart Lane on 18 December, 2008 as we drew 2-2 with Spartak Moscow in a UEFA Cup group stage fixture. Luka Modric and Tom Huddlestone were our scorers that night. Pavlyuchenko got the only goal of the game as we beat Rubin Kazan 1-0 in N17 on 20 October, 2011 in a UEFA Europa League Group A match meanwhile. We lost the reverse fixture 1-0 in Kazan two weeks later.

Strikes from Jermain Defoe and Nacer Chadli saw us to a 2-0 away win at Anzhi Makhachkala in the UEFA Europa League group stage on 3 October, 2013. Roberto Soldado scored a hat-trick as we beat Anzhi 4-1 at home in our final Group K fixture that season while Lewis Holtby was also on target. We finished top of the group, having won all six matches.

We faced CSKA Moscow in Group E of the UEFA Champions League during the 2016/17 season. Heung-Min Son scored in our 1-0 win at Arena CSKA on 27 September, while Dele Alli, Harry Kane and an own goal from Igor Akinfeev gave us a 3-1 victory over the Russian side at Wembley Stadium on 7 December.

EURO HISTORY

The former Soviet Union won the inaugural European Championships in France in 1960 and were runners-up in 1964, 1972 and 1988.

Following the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Russia competed at their first European Championships in 1996, finishing bottom of a group containing the Czech Republic, Germany and Italy. After missing out on qualification for Euro 2000, Russia finished bottom of Group A at Euro 2004.

Russia's best showing at the European Championships came in 2008, as they reached the semi-final of the tournament held in Austria and Switzerland. Guus Hiddink's side finished second to eventual competition winners Spain in Group D before beating the Netherlands 3-1 after extra time in their quarter-final tie in Basel. They were beaten 3-0 by Spain in Vienna in the semi-final five days later.

Russia failed to progress beyond the group stage at both Euro 2012 and 2016.

Continuing our Q&A feature for this season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. This evening, young defender Japhet Tanganga is in the hotseat.

1. What's the first thing you do in the morning?
Japhet: "I pray."

2. When was the last time you cried?
Japhet: "I cried before the Liverpool game, when I made my debut. They were just tears of joy and it was just overwhelming. I was sitting in my room and it came out but then I was like, 'come on, fix up, you have a game today', so I got up, showered and got ready. I had just been waiting for that moment to get my opportunity, my dad had been waiting for it too and it just hit me. If you had told me a week before the Liverpool game that I would have been playing, I would have laughed. Things have changed so much."

3. What keeps you going through the bad times?
Japhet: "God. Simply my faith in God. I just feel you need to have hope in something."

4. What is your most used WhatsApp group?
Japhet: "I don't have any WhatsApp groups, but I use Snapchat and Instagram which my friends and I have chats on."

5. Describe your worst hairstyle?
Japhet: "When I went to the barbers and ask for a mid-fade but ended up getting a high fade, a one on top. It was not good. I got stick for that. It was just too short. So now I just play it safe."

6. Who has been the biggest influence on your career so far?
Japhet: "My dad. The advice he has given me and how hard he has worked to get me where I am. He pushes me and motivates me. I don't feel like I have to work hard for him, but I feel like I owe it to him so he can see what he has worked hard for has paid off."

7. What is the last TV boxset you watched?
Japhet: "Rick and Morty. I've just re-watched the first few series and now I'm just waiting for the new ones to come out. It's just so funny."

8. What emoji do you use most?
Japhet: "The laughing one."

9. What singer/rapper would be your dream duet?
Japhet: "Young Thug."

10. If you could go back in time to anywhere, where would you go?
Japhet: "I'm a firm believer that everything that has happened in the past has happened for a reason – to lead you to the very moment you are in now. So if you alter the past, it's going to change where you are now. So, I wouldn't go anywhere, I'd keep looking forward."

11. What is your favourite journey?
Japhet: "It might be a bit childish but my journeys home from school on the bus. They were legendary. I would go back to that, when we were young, all the good, bad and funny moments. Those journeys were the best. I wanted the longest journey home to have a laugh with my friends."

12. Who was your childhood crush?
Japhet: "Halle Berry. I saw films like X-Men with her when I was younger and thought I'd really like to meet her."

13. What did you want to be growing up?
Japhet: "Footballer. No doubts about it."

14. What reminds you of home?
Japhet: "Just having family and friends together happy and laughing. We just have times at home where we have banter with each other about the past. So, when I have similar moments with my friends, that reminds me of home. My family are very busy – parents working, siblings working or at university – but when we're together, we always seem to be in the kitchen laughing."

15. If you could sit down with your 16-year-old self, what advice would you give him?
Japhet: "Accept criticism. I feel when I was younger, I didn't want to hear it. Not just take it but look at it, think about it and do something about it. People don't talk just for the sake of it, they actually tell you things because they know what you need. Accept criticism from family, friends and coaches."

16. How do you like your eggs?
Japhet: "As an omelette, with peppers, spinach and cheese."

17. What was your first holiday abroad?
Japhet: "It was to Antalya in Turkey with my girlfriend. I'd been abroad before but on football trips, not holidays. It was very hot, a bit too hot as it was hitting the 40s."

18. Tell us a secret?
Japhet: "I have a very bad fear of spiders. Even if you tried to show me a picture of one on a phone, I couldn't look at it. I can't deal with spiders."
